How We Will Calculate Your Balance: We use a method called “average daily balance (including new purchases or advances).” Billing Rights: Information on your rights to dispute transactions and how to exercise those rights is provided in your account agreement.

The credit union will acquire a security interest in the property purchased with your credit card; and collateral securing other loans with us may also secure this account. Also, you are giving us a security interest in your shares and other deposits in the credit union. *The information about the costs of the card described in this application is accurate as of January 1, 2024. This information may have changed after that date. To find out what may have changed, call us at 803-343-0300 or 1-800-868-8740, or write us at: State Credit Union, PO Box 726, Columbia, SC 29202, or visit www.scscu.com. Rev 1/2024

This document explains the rules which govern your State Credit Union (herein referred to as "Credit Union") Visa credit card account. Please read carefully and keep in a safe and convenient place.

1. Interest will not be imposed on credit purchases of goods and services if you pay the entire new balance shown on the previous monthly statement within 25 days from the closing date of the statement.
2. There is no grace period on cash advances made on your card. Interest will be charged from the date of the cash advance. If your balance is paid prior to the due date, no additional interest will be accrued in the current billing cycle. (See Balance Computation Method below.)
3. Balance Computation method for interest: We calculate the interest on your account by applying the periodic rate to the "average daily balance" of your account. To get the "average daily balance," we take the beginning balance of your account each day, add any new purchases and cash advances, unpaid interest, current late payment fees, and other applicable fees, and subtract any payments or credits. Then we add up all the daily balances for the billing cycle and divide by the number of days in the billing cycle. This gives us the average daily balance.
4. Partial Grace: Partial Grace adds an additional grace period to portions of an unpaid balance in the billing period where an account moves from paid-in full to revolving status. In the transition-to-revolving billing period, balances equal to the amount of any partial payment must not be included in the Average Daily Balance subject to interest. The month an account becomes revolving is the first month where the payment made by the payoff exception date (most frequently cycle date) is less than the statement balance owed. Partial Grace only applies to transactions that are subject to a grace period.
5. The MINIMUM monthly payment is 2.5% of the new balance or $25.00, whichever is greater.
6. Cardholder payments made in excess of the minimum payment due will be applied to the highest APR balance first and then, in order, down to the lowest APR balance.
7. Over-limit conditions must be cleared immediately because your account will not be allowed future approvals until your balance is below the approved limit.
8. A fee (see Fee Schedule) will be charged on any check issued for payment on your credit card if the check is dishonored and returned. This fee will be added to your account balance.
9. With your SCU Visa® card, you may obtain cash advances at any financial institution displaying the Visa logo. Cash advances are also available at many ATMs.
10. Your Visa card is issued for a 36-month period, but it can be cancelled by State Credit Union at any time if used improperly or payments are not made. We will notify you in writing if your account is closed due to inactivity for 18 or more months.
11. Credit Life Insurance is available at the member's option. Credit Disability Insurance is also available. The charges will be added to your account balance each month.
12. You agree to notify us immediately at our credit card processor of the loss, theft, or unauthorized use of your credit card at 1-866-583-4051 or 1-727-299-2449 if outside of the U. S. You may be liable for the unauthorized use of your credit card. You will not be liable for unauthorized use that occurs after you notify us of the loss, theft, or possible unauthorized use. In any case, your liability will not exceed $50 for unauthorized cash advances at ATMs. You will have no liability for unauthorized purchases made with your credit card. If you report your card Lost/Stolen, it is your responsibility to destroy any remaining cards with that number. If you find the Lost/Stolen card, you should destroy the card and notify the Credit Union or PSCU. If you use the card and it is recovered by an authorized Visa merchant (because it appears on the Revoked Card List or the Visa Center tells the merchant to pick up the card), then you will be liable for any fees, costs or merchant awards resulting from your unauthorized use of the card.
13. There will be a replacement fee (see Fee Schedule) for a mutilated card or if the card is more than ninety (90) days from the scheduled reissue. Expired cards will be reissued without cost to you.
14. If you ask for a copy of a document, such as a convenience check or billing statement, a per-hour charge (see Fee Schedule) may be imposed for the time that is required to research and locate the document. In addition, a copying fee (see Fee Schedule) will be charged. No charge will be imposed in connection with any billing error.
15. In the event, that you receive convenience checks that access your credit card account. These checks are good for only 90 days. Please note: Convenience Checks will be treated as Cash Advances. Interest is charged on cash advances beginning on the transaction date. If you are over your credit limit, are in default, your account privileges have been cancelled, or your card expired, we may decline to honor a convenience check and a fee (see Fee Schedule) will be added to your account balance. Convenience checks may be used only by the person whose name is printed on them. You may not use convenience checks to pay any amount which you owe SCU. Paid convenience checks will not be returned to you. There is a fee (see Fee Schedule) when you stop payment on a convenience check. It is the Credit Union's sole discretion to issue convenience checks to any member.
16. If you incur a charge (a Purchase or Cash Advance) in a foreign currency, the charge will be converted into a U.S. dollar amount in accordance with the operating regulations of Visa international in effect at the time that the transaction is processed. Currently, these Regulations provide that the currency conversion rate to be used is either: (a) a wholesale market rate; or (b) a government-mandated rate in effect one day prior to the processing date, increased by one percent in each case. Visa retains this one percent as compensation for performing the currency conversion service. The Credit Union reserves the right to charge a fee for this service with appropriate legal notice. The currency conversion rate in effect on the processing date may differ from the rate in effect on the transaction date or the posting date.

17. Your Visa card may not be used for any illegal transaction, such as unlawful gambling.
18. The Credit Union may change the terms of this Agreement, including the Annual Percentage Rate, with 45 days written notice. Except where limited by applicable law, the new terms, including but not limited to, the way the Credit Union calculates interest, and the minimum payment due, will apply to both new purchases and cash advances and to the existing outstanding balance of your account as of the day of the change. In accordance with applicable law, the Credit Union will notify you of any increased charge. However, if the APR changes, the new APR will apply only to new purchases and cash advances. If you receive notification of an increase in the APR or other "significant change" in terms, you will have the right to cancel before the effective date of the increase or change in order for your account to remain under the same terms and conditions. Your minimum payment requirement would remain the same.
19. The use of your card confirms agreement to the Visa terms and conditions as well as the terms outlined herein. Complete disclosures, terms and conditions will be provided to you. Please read all terms and conditions prior to use of your card. If you do not agree with the terms and conditions provided, contact the SCU Visa Department in writing (mail or fax) immediately to cancel the account.

20. BILLING RIGHTS

In Case of Errors or Inquiries about Your Bill:

If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your bill, write us on a separate sheet of paper at the address indicated below as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared.

You can telephone us but doing so will not preserve your rights.

In your letter give us the following information:

- * Your name and account number.
- * The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- * Describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item you are unsure about.

You do not have to pay any amount in question while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. While we investigate your question, we cannot report you as delinquent or take any action to collect the amount you question. If you have a problem with the quality of goods or services that you purchased with a credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may not have to pay the remaining amount due on the goods or services. You have this protection only when the purchase price was more than $50.00 and the purchase was made in your home state or within 100 miles of your mailing address. (If we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services, all purchases are covered regardless of amount or location of purchase.)

21. If your account goes past due, no further approvals or advances will be made until your account is current. A chronic past-due condition will cause your credit card to be revoked. A late fee (see Fee Schedule) will be assessed if the account becomes 15 days delinquent from the date of the due date. Payments must be received by 5:00 p.m. EST in order to insure credit for that day.
22. If your account goes past due sixty (60) days, the card may be cancelled. However, the Credit Union may reinstate your card, provided your account is brought up to date and is given reasonable assurance it will not become past due again. Any future recurrence will cause an automatic cancellation. The Credit Union may demand payment in full upon written notice to the cardholder, on any delinquent or cancelled account.
23. Your monthly statement is your bill. You are required to immediately notify the Credit Union in writing if your name and/or home address changes. Your due date will remain the same each month.
24. Your performance under this agreement may be reported to Credit Reporting Agencies. Protect your credit rating by paying promptly.
25. You may close your account at any time by notifying us in writing and returning your card or cards, cut in half. You will remain responsible for payment of the amount owed to the Credit Union according to the terms and conditions in effect at the time you close your account.
26. Keep your copy of transaction slips. Checking your copies against your monthly statement can help you guard against incorrect charges and fraudulent vendors.

27. Be careful about placing orders by telephone, mail or internet. Satisfy yourself that the company is a reputable firm.
28. Do not carry cards that are used infrequently, but store in a secure manner where no one else has access to them.
29. Sign all new cards immediately after receiving them.
30. Insist that any duplicate transaction slips made through error be destroyed. It is also a good idea to have any carbon papers destroyed as well.
31. The Credit Union currently offers a Rewards Program. SCU reserves the right to make changes in the Rewards program and/or redemptions without notice; and may cancel the program with 15 days' notice, after which the Credit Union shall have no obligations under the program, or the rewards cancelled.
32. SKIP PAYMENT OPTION: At our discretion, we may offer you the opportunity to not make ("skip") a minimum payment during certain designated billing cycles ("skip payment period"). If you do not make your minimum payments as provided in this Agreement, during such designated billing cycles, you understand that we will continue to apply finance charges to your account. Beginning with the billing cycle following an allowed skip payment period, all other provisions of this Agreement will apply. We have no obligation to accept your application for any skip payment period offered, and you authorize us to investigate your creditworthiness including obtaining consumer credit reports. We may charge you an application processing fee of up to $20.00, which will be reflected on your next statement should you choose not to pay the fee outright, for each skip payment period that we may offer to cover our costs of investigating your qualifications for this extension including but not limited to the costs associated with researching your creditworthiness.
33. Alternate Dispute Resolution / Arbitration Agreement: If you have a dispute with us, we hope to resolve it as quickly and easily as possible. First, discuss your dispute with us. If a Credit Union employee is unable to resolve your dispute, you agree that either Credit Union or you can initiate arbitration as described in this section.

Definition: Arbitration means an impartial third party will hear the dispute between Credit Union and you and provide a decision. Binding arbitration means the decision of the arbitrator is final and enforceable. A dispute is any unresolved disagreement between Credit Union and you. A dispute may also include a disagreement about this Arbitration Agreement's meaning, application, or enforcement.

Credit Union and you each agree to waive the right to a jury trial or a trial in front of a judge in a public court.

Arbitration is beneficial because it provides a legally binding decision in a more streamlined, cost-effective manner than a typical court case. But the benefit of arbitration is diminished if either Credit Union or you refuse to submit to arbitration following a lawful demand. Thus, the party that does not agree to submit to arbitration after a lawful demand must pay all of the other party's costs and expenses for compelling arbitration.

Neither Credit Union nor you will be entitled to join or consolidate disputes by or against others as a representative or member of a class, to act in any arbitration in the interests of the general public, or to act as a private attorney general. If any provision related to a class action, class arbitration, private attorney general action, other representative action, joinder, or consolidation is found to be illegal or unenforceable, the entire Arbitration Agreement will be unenforceable.

Right to Opt-Out: You may opt-out of this Arbitration Provision by calling us toll free at: 1-800-868-8740, or by sending us a written notice to PO Box 726, Columbia, SC 29202-0726, which includes your name(s), account number(s), and a statement that you (both or all of you, if more than one) do not wish to be governed by the Arbitration Provision in your Account Agreement (the "Opt-Out Notice").

To be effective, your written Opt-Out Notice must be: (1) sent to us by first class mail or certified mail, return receipt requested, at: Address for Opt-Out, and (2) signed by you (or all of you, if more than one party to any relationship) including the information set forth above. We must receive your telephone call or written notice within forty-five (45) days after either: (i) the date this Arbitration Provision was first delivered or otherwise made available to you, in paper or electronic form, or (ii) the day you open your account, whichever is later. Your decision to opt out will not affect any other provision of your Membership and Account Agreement. If the Arbitration Provision of your Membership and Account Agreement has already been delivered or otherwise made available to you, amendments to your Membership and Account Agreement will not give you a new right to opt out of this Arbitration Provision, unless we amend a substantive clause of the Arbitration Provision. Opting out does not affect the above waiver of trial, joinder and consolidation rights.

Credit Union and you each agree that:

- The American Arbitration Association (AAA) will administer each arbitration and the selection of arbitrators according to the AAA's Consumer Arbitration Rules (AAA Rules).
- If there are any differences between the AAA Rules and this Arbitration Agreement, this Arbitration Agreement applies. If this Arbitration Agreement is in dispute, the arbitrator will decide whether it is enforceable.
- Credit Union and you are participating in commercial transactions involving the movement of money or goods among states.
- The Federal Arbitration Act (Title 9 of the United States Code) governs this Arbitration Agreement and any arbitration between Credit Union and you. If the Act or any part of it is inapplicable, unenforceable or invalid, the state laws governing your relationship with Credit Union govern this Arbitration Agreement.

Either Credit Union or you may submit a dispute to binding arbitration at any time, regardless of whether a lawsuit or other proceeding has previously begun. For information on initiating arbitration, contact the AAA at 1-800-778-7879.

Setting the fees/expenses: We will pay any costs that are required to be paid by us under the arbitration administrator's rules and procedures, and subject to applicable law. If the arbitrator rules in your favor on any claim presented, we will reimburse you for arbitration filing fees you have paid up to $700.00. Please check with the arbitration administrator to determine the fees applicable to any arbitration you file.

Applying state law: The laws governing your account may limit the amount of fees and expenses you are required to pay in arbitration. Your arbitration fees and expenses will not exceed any applicable limits.

Paying for attorney/expert/witness fees: Unless applicable laws state otherwise, each party will pay its own attorney, expert, and witness fees. This rule applies no matter which party wins arbitration.

Scope of Arbitration Coverage: Under the terms of these Arbitration Provisions, and except as set forth above, Claims (as defined below) will be resolved by individual (and not class-wide) binding arbitration in accordance with the terms specified herein, if you or we elect it. These provisions shall apply to any claim arising or relating to any Claim existing now or in the future and shall apply to existing and future accounts, loans and other Credit Union services.

"Claim." For purposes of this Arbitration Provision, the word "claim" means any dispute associated with or arising from any one or more savings, checking or other accounts you have with us and the features and services provided in connection with it or them. Claim also includes collectively and separately, any services associated with any account. Further, "claim" shall include any loan or lending relationship with us as a borrower, co-borrower, guarantor, owner of collateral or third-party pledgor. A loan or lending relationship shall include any products or services obtained in connection with or arising from the lending relationship.

All statutes of limitation applicable to any dispute apply to any arbitration between you and the Credit Union. The provisions of this arbitration agreement shall survive termination or amendment of the account/services relationships or any other relationships between you and the Credit Union.

This arbitration requirement does not limit the right of Credit Union or you to:

- 1) Preserve or obtain possession of property,
- 2) Exercise self-help remedies, including setoff or
- 3) Obtain provisional or ancillary remedies such as injunctive relief or attachment, before, during, or after the pendency of any arbitration proceeding. This exclusion does not constitute a waiver of the right or obligation of either party to submit any dispute to arbitration or reference hereunder, including those arising from the exercise of the actions detailed above.

Any dispute in which the amount in controversy is $5,000,000 or less will be decided by a single arbitrator selected according to the rules, and who will not render an award of greater than $5,000,000. Any dispute in which the amount in controversy exceeds $5,000,000 will be decided by majority vote of a panel of three arbitrators; provided however, that all three arbitrators must actively participate in all hearings and deliberations. Each arbitrator will be a neutral attorney licensed in the state whose laws govern your account, or a neutral, retired judge in such state, in either case with a minimum of ten years' experience in the substantive law applicable to the subject matter of the dispute to be arbitrated. The arbitrator(s) will determine whether or not an issue is arbitratable and will give effect to the statutes of limitation in determining any claim.

In any arbitration proceeding the arbitrator(s) will decide (by documents only or with a hearing at the discretion of the arbitrator(s)) any pre-hearing motions which are similar to motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim or motions for summary adjudication. The arbitrator(s) will resolve all disputes in accordance with the substantive law of the state whose laws govern your account and may grant any remedy or relief that a court of such state could order or grant within the scope hereof and such ancillary relief as is necessary to make effective any award. The arbitrator(s) will also have the power to award recovery of all costs and fees, to impose sanctions, and to take such other action as deemed necessary to the same extent a judge could pursuant to the federal rules of civil procedure, the state rules of civil procedure for the state whose laws govern your account, or other applicable law. Judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction. The institution and maintenance of an action for judicial relief or pursuit of a provisional or ancillary remedy will not constitute a waiver of the right of any party, including the plaintiff, to submit the controversy or claim to arbitration if any other party contests such action for judicial relief.

In any arbitration proceeding, discovery will be permitted in accordance with the rules. All discovery will be expressly limited to matters directly relevant to the dispute being arbitrated and must be completed no later than 20 days before the hearing date. Any requests for an extension of the discovery periods, or any discovery disputes, will be subject to final determination by the arbitrator upon a showing that the request for discovery is essential for the party's presentation and that no alternative means for obtaining information is available.

The arbitrator will award all costs and expenses of the arbitration proceeding.

To the maximum extent practicable, the AAA, the arbitrator(s), Credit Union and you will take all action required to conclude any arbitration proceeding within 180 days of the filing of the dispute with the AAA. The arbitrator(s), Credit Union or you may not disclose the existence, content, or results thereof, except for disclosures of information by Credit Union or you required in the ordinary course of business, by applicable law or regulation, or to the extent necessary to exercise any judicial review rights set forth herein. If more than one agreement for arbitration by or between Credit Union and you potentially applies to a dispute, the arbitration agreement most directly related to your account or the subject matter of the dispute will control. This arbitration agreement will survive the closing of your account or termination of any service or the relationship between Credit Union and you.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, Credit Union and you each retains the right to pursue in small claims court a dispute within that court's jurisdiction. Further, this arbitration agreement will apply only to disputes in which either party seeks to recover an amount of money (excluding attorneys' fees and costs) that exceeds the jurisdictional limit of the small claims court.

The laws of the State of South Carolina shall govern and control your agreements with us, including the interpretation of any terms or conditions or applicable jurisdiction or venue. For the purposes of jurisdiction and venue as explained in the Membership Account Agreement and Disclosures, the Credit Union's principal office is located in Richland County in the State of South Carolina. This applies not only to this Resolving Claims Section, but to all provisions of this Agreement.

Visa Terms & Conditions

The person ("Cardholder") whose name is embossed on the face of the Visa card ("Card") applied for and was issued, and each Cardholder, in the event more than one Card is enclosed herewith bearing the same account number, by signing or using said Card, receipt of which is acknowledged, agrees with the issuer of the Card, SC State Federal Credit Union (SCU) as follows:

1. Goods and services ("Credit Purchases") may be purchased or leased by means of such card by Cardholder from any retail business establishment ("Seller") who honors same upon the execution of a sales slip evidencing such Credit Purchase and bearing the account number of Cardholder embossed on the face of such Card. Additionally, Visa Cash Advance ("Loans") may be obtained through use of such Card (a) upon execution of a written request of Cardholder in a form furnished to him/her from any bank that is a member, alone or in association with others, of Visa Inc. and (b) upon execution of a written separate agreement with issuer for a Visa overdraft financing agreement, if offered by issuer. Up to 20 authorizations may be granted per day.
2. Cardholder shall be liable and agrees to pay issuer for Credit Purchases made by, or for Loans extended to, Cardholder or anyone else using such Card unless the use of such Card is by a person other than the Cardholder (a) who does not have actual, implied or apparent authority for such use, and (b) from which Cardholder receives no benefit.
3. Additionally, Cardholder shall be jointly and severally liable and agrees to pay for all Credit Purchases and Loans obtained through the use of any other Card for Cardholder's account number that has been issued to another person by reason of such person being a member of Cardholder's family, or otherwise issued upon Cardholder's request (all such Cards issued for the Cardholder's account hereinafter collectively called "Related Cards"). Further, if you authorize us to honor any Purchase or Cash Advance you make by telephone, mail, or internet on this account, you agree that a signature is not necessary as identification in such cases.
4. Each Card is the property of issuer, is not transferrable and must be surrendered upon demand. It can be cancelled as well as repossessed by Issuer or its designee, and the privileges thereof revoked at any time without prior notice.
5. Cardholder shall not use Card or permit the use of Related Cards to obtain Credit Purchases or Loans which will increase Cardholder's Visa indebtedness to Issuer to an amount in excess of the limit established by Issuer.
6. All Credit Purchases and Loans are affected at the option of the Seller and Cash Advancing Bank, respectively, and Issuer shall not be responsible for refusal by any Seller or Cash Advancing Bank to honor the Card or any Related Card. Any refund, adjustment or credit allowed by Seller shall not be by cash but rather by a credit advice to Issuer which shall be shown as a credit on Cardholder's account statement with Issuer.
7. Issuer will send to Cardholder, at monthly intervals determined by Issuer, a statement reflecting for the prior monthly period all Visa Card and Related Card transactions. Such statement shall be deemed correct and accepted by Cardholder and all holders of Related Cards unless Issuer is notified to the contrary in writing within 60 days of mailing of such statement. Cardholder will pay such statement by remitting to Issuer within 25 days of the closing date reflected on the statement either the full amount billed or, at Cardholder's option, an Installment equal to at least the required minimum payment stated in Paragraph 4 of the Disclosures.
8. Interest on Loans and Credit Purchases will be charged in accordance with the interest calculation method referred to in Paragraph 3 of the Disclosures. The rate of interest shall be established by Issuer.
9. If the Card is cancelled or surrender is demanded by Issuer, or if Cardholder defaults in any payment due, or is deceased, bankrupt or insolvent, or any attachment or garnishment proceedings are initiated against Cardholder or his/her property, Issuer may elect to declare all amounts then owed to Issuer to be immediately due and payable without notice or demand of any kind. If Cardholder has other loans from Issuer or takes out other loans with Issuer in the future, collateral securing those loans will also secure the Cardholder's obligation under this agreement. However, unless the Cardholder expressly agrees otherwise, the Cardholder's primary dwelling will not secure Cardholder's obligations under this agreement even if Issuer has or later acquires a mortgage on the dwelling. Cardholder agrees to pay all costs incurred by Issuer in collecting Cardholder's indebtedness or in enforcing this agreement, including attorney's fees of 10% of the unpaid balance or such greater amount as may be reasonable and just and also those costs, expenses and attorney's fees incurred in appellate, bankruptcy and post judgments proceedings except to the extent such costs, fees or expenses are prohibited by law.

IMPORTANT VISA AGREEMENT & DISCLOSURES

10. The validity, construction and enforcement of this agreement and all matters arising out of the issuance and use of the Card shall be governed by Federal law.
